

Unitarian Universalist Church of Spokane
Commitment to the Church 2011-2012

Each year, members and friends of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Spokane are given the opportunity to reflect on their financial commitment to the church. This is your opportunity to ask yourself what the church means to you and how you want to support the work and mission of this beloved congregation.

Once you have your answer, you have the opportunity on this form to make a pledge to honor what your heart has told you. Making a financial pledge is only one way to give; some find making such a commitment a helpful way to align how they spend their money and time with their deepest values.

Remember, a pledge is not a legal document; it is a statement of a commitment you wish to keep. During the year your life circumstances may call you to give more or require you to give less. The strength of this faith community — all of its activity and its entire ministry — is built upon the gracious and generous giving of our members and friends. Thank you for giving from your heart.
