The United Coalition of Reason

Our guest speaker this morning is Fred Edwords, National Director for the United Coalition of Reason. The United Coalition of Reason is a national organization that works to raise the visibility of local nontheistic groups all over America. Nationally, they do this by conducting campaigns which highlight the fact that nontheists live in every community across America. Locally, they do this by promoting informal cooperation among local groups, hosting local coalition websites, training group leaders, and funding publicity campaigns.
